THE ABBOT GATE

F I V E - Y E A R - D I A R Y

June 5, 1939

Dear Diary:

One last word before I pass through the Abbot Gate to return no more as a student. I have recorded on your pages only a small part of all I have come to know and love here at Abbot. She has given to me keys which will open to me the gates of the future. As some of these will unlock the treasures of the mind, may you unlock the treasures of the memory. May your pages make live again the joyous days spent within the Abbot Gate.

And now, dear diary, I think I shall name you

The Circle

and leave you as a record of the life of the Class of 1939

at

Abbot Academy

Andover, Massachusetts

... and never will I forget Mrs. Gray who taught us how to walk, stand, and sit; coached our plays with patience and love; and understood us and made us do our best. Never a Chri

We greet them many times each day
But never really know
How much they see, how much they hear,
Or where they sometimes go!

*... in an unusually pensive mood, thinking how the bonds of our Classes may be the bonds holding us longest to Abbot . . . the class is the circle within which we move, giving our most real and probably our most lasting joys . . .*

1934-35

...never have been so scared in my life...horror of the unknown; namely, roommate!...complete awe of the lofty seniors...ambition five years hence...home is so far away...dumbfounded by so many new faces and names...first Thanksgiving service...what if we forget our verses?...peeking through the rails at Prom...will our day ever come?...final exams...old girl next year!

1935-36

...class picnic—treasure hunt—Mary Elliot's barn...Miss Comegys and Miss Jenks carrying on after the loss of Miss Bailey...New England winter at its best...wedding bells among the faculty...first floor—Juniors predominate—walk away with song contest...Abbot opens her doors to Miss Hearsey!

1936-37

...the year we usher at the Prom! Haste thee, Avril and bring with thee!...Miss Hancock arrives, sling and all, accent included...Miss Tucker initiated by an unruly fourth floor...no snow...pray for no rain at Intervale when our turn comes, after seeing the seniors float home...April at last!...Prom and wheedling dances from suddenly hard-hearted upperclassmen...next year the whole world will be ours! Ah men!

1937-38

...senior-mid year...very grown up, yet still able to enjoy the new-girl-old-girl party and the Tin Man of Oz...Memorial Service to Miss Chickering...Christmas and Mrs. Gray reading aloud in the McKeen rooms...sleigh-ride to the Kirkshire...March and our tea dance with the seniors—prelude to the prom...Griffin Follies...such talents exhibited!...prom—what bliss to be a senior-mid!

SENIOR CLASS

CLASS SONG

Tune: Anchors Aweigh

Thirty-nine is marching on,
Banners on high,
We will swing along together,
Sing her praises forever and aye.
Our class we'll honor long,
Cherish memories true,
Bound by the bonds of friendship
We will e'er be true to Thirty-nine!

Intervale

Sure a little bit of Heaven
Fell from out the sky one day,
And it nestled in New Hampshire
Not so many miles away;
And when the angels found it
Sure it looked so sweet and fair,
They said, "Suppose we leave it,
For it looks so peaceful there."
So they sprinkled it with sunshine
Just to make the pine trees grow;
They're the finest ones than can be found
No matter where you go.
And they placed the mountains 'round it
Just to keep away the gale,
And when they had it finished,
Sure they called it Intervale!

February 4-7, 1939, Intervale, New Hampshire

Abbot, Abbot, I've been thinking
What a fine world this would be
If you could all spend your week-ends
Up at Intervale with me.

Heard in Passing

LUSH (appropriately shocked): Sadie, did you eat without your shoes?

SADIE (unabashed): I certainly didn't eat with them!

Connie described the lights in a theatre as "gondoliers." Maybe it was the company! "Fish," singing lustily, "Sam and eggs for breakfast!"

NANNIE (on viewing Intervale's male contingent): There's your chance to go steady!

MR. EMERSON (as Annie returned from a "quick one" on the twister trail): Been snowing in them thar hills?

Continuous performance—daily through midnight: "Happy birthday, dear Mooney!"

ANNIE: Bo, Bellows and I have bunks.

BOBO: Hm—furnishings to fit the personality at Maple Villa!

Seen in Passing

Connie late-ly learning subtle fascinations of—poker.

Riddle—guess who! Sitting on the back wall in the movies, reminding us of six black cats on Hallowe'en. Answer—Ca, Bellows, Bonnie, Leland, Hill and Waugh.

Miss Hearsey catching on, oh so quickly, to the art of tipping one's sugar into one's tea. Significance—he really cares.

Roger defending himself against a literal bombardment of snowballs on the station platform.

Fishie, Kiki, and Mac on snowshoes for the first time—and to their horror Miss Hearsey's camera catching all the downs. (There were no ups!)

Nimble dancing feet in ski boots until the novelty wore off, or maybe it was the strength. Then came socks!

Connie and Sadie in circles to "Hold Tight."

And We'll Never Forget

The thrill of seeing feet of snow—and Intervale.

The beauty of the mountains in the bright sun of Saturday morning.

The excitement of the ski tow and the heights to which it could take us.

The brilliance of the moon as we rode to the movies.

The Sunday night supper under the pines and stars, with an open fire and frankfurters to cook.

The peace of sitting together before the fire as Miss Hearsey read aloud and Woodie played the "Moonlight Sonata."

The ties of friendship made and strengthened by our days of common experience and comradeship.

The mingled joy and sadness of returning to familiar faces and places.

Intervale Songs

Tune: Sweet Rosy O'Grady

I once knew an Indian
Who exclaimed to me,
"I don't get this skiing game,
It's foolish as can be!
Woosh! you go, then climb a mile!"
Well, maybe he's not wrong,
But if I could stay at Intervale
I'd ski my whole life long.

Tune: Take Me Out to the Ball Game

Take me back to New Hampshire,
Take me back to The Inn,
Give me some skates and skis and poles,
Give me some snow to fill up the holes
Where I fell while doing the Christie;
Think nothing of broken knees!
For we'll soon be back to our books
And to memories.

Tune: Merry Widow Waltz

We've been skating, we've been skiing,
We've had fun,
Broken bindings, aching shoulders,
Now it's done;
Though we've left no broken limbs
Up among the hills,
Ne'ertheless we've left our hearts
Where we had spills.

Tune: The Old Apple Tree

There's a little old Inn in New Hampshire
Which will live in my memory,
Where we had flapjacks for breakfast,
Where we shared our Simmons mattresses,
Where we skied on our pants and our knees.
Say good-bye, say good-bye,
Say good-bye to the swift Twister Trail,
We'll remember when we're eighty
How we coasted down at sixty
'Round the pines and the peaks of Intervale.

"Have you done your English?"

"Ugh! A French test!"

Senior Prom

*... indecision ... doubts ... fears
... hasty telegrams ... program rush ... hall enhanced by lantern light ... garland-festooned trellises much too low for god-like youths to enter by ... corsages sent, some leisurely, some breathlessly, by well-meaning escorts ... yards of ribbon flowing from tiny bows coyly placed in smart coiffures
... Circle an open thoroughfare ... music with a Spanish touch ... au revoir till we meet again ...*

Ring Song

As we look back on Abbot years
And call to mind our joys and fears,
The friendships made,
The experience shared,
Intangibles to which we cling,
We see the meaning of this ring.

Though soon our paths will lie apart
Though new careers for us will start,
We, unafraid,
Hopes, unimpaired,
Can face whate'er the years will bring
Because we have our Senior ring.

May this reminder keep us true
To our ideals, and hopes renew;
When doubts invade
And we have dared
To falter at life's unkind sting,
May we be strengthened by this ring.

CHARLOTTE SKINNER

Tree Song

Recall, O Tree, more than this sheltered life
When shortly it is done.
Recall that here we half-perceived the heights
Awaiting to be won.
The careless days of childhood lie behind;
Our lives stretch on before.
We glimpse new realms, and our untried, young minds
Would hasten to explore.

If visions, touched by Truth's harsh breath, should fade,
If Wisdom proves unkind,
Destroying that sweet, blissful, trusting faith
Which lulled the dormant mind,
If, facing light, to a far kindlier shade
Our aching eyes would turn,
Recall to us the will which here was ours
To live, and living, learn.

MARJORY HILL

Runners-up

RING SONG

Years filled with loveliness of life,
Of work, of play, are centered 'round
These walls, tradition bound, here where
Deep-reaching happiness was found.

Days spent in following visions bright,
Days filled full of sun and laughter,
Of learning how to live with life—
These will stay whate'er comes after.

These years will be within our hearts,
A heritage we'll not forget.
Our gleaming rings reminding us
Of standards high, which here we set.

MARY WOODMAN

TREE SONG

Live and grow
O thou, the noblest of nature's peers,
Reminding those to come of conquered years,
That they, through love of thee, new faith may know,
Live, and grow.

Live and sing,
Thou minstrel of the winds, new tales and old,
Of work accomplished and of joys untold.
To those of future years our spirit bring,
Live and sing.

Live and pray,
Spread out thy sheltering shade for great and small,
And with thy benediction bless them all.
Retell the treasured meaning of this day,
Live—and pray.

GRIFFINS

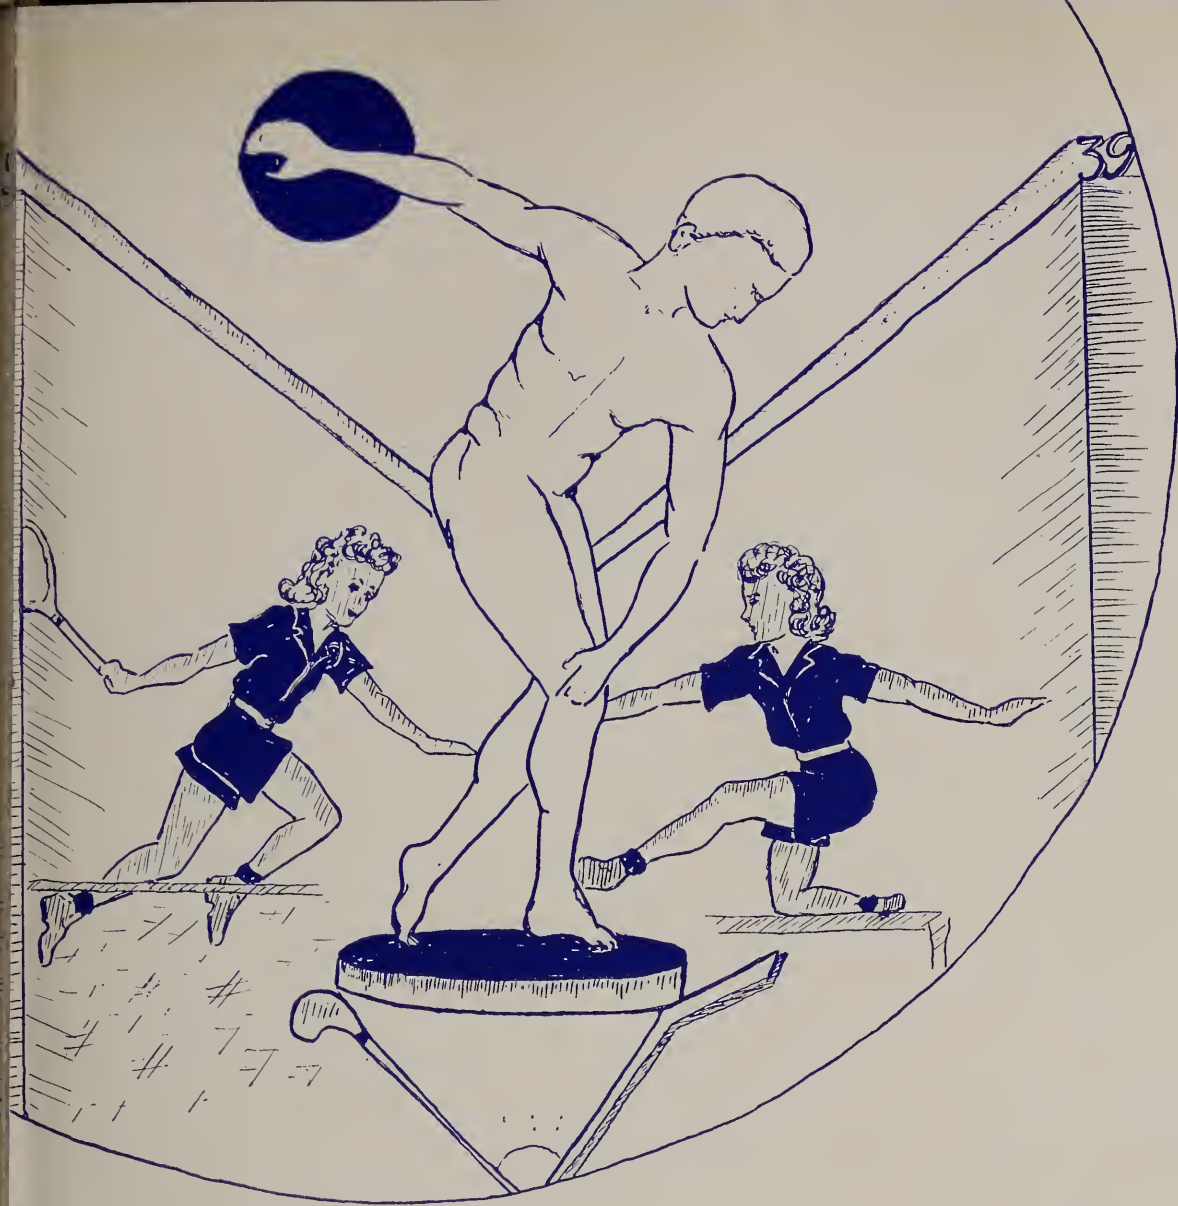

Tune: Washington and Lee Swing

Come all you Griffins, come and fall in line,
We're going to have a simply wonderful time
We're going to show those Gargoyles we won't yield,
And we're the only team that's sure to win the shield,
We're going to yell and yell for th' orange and black
For all the Griffins want to come right back,
We're going to send those Gargoyles back to bed!
The Griffin Orange and Black!

GARGOYLES

Tune: Ohio State Marching Song

Marching, marching down the field
The Gargoyles on Parade;
Setting earth reverberating
For we're off to make the grade;
Banner green and mascot so bold,
Sportsmanship and valor uphold, so,
Hail, Hail to Victory
For the Gargoyles will win today!

... the 1939 Winner will be announced to-day ... here's hoping! ... anyway I'll bet on the team that hasn't let a chance go by of taking advantage of the infinitely varied Sports program that Abbot offers ...

Every Play Has Its "Gray" Moments

However perfect the finished production may seem, there are always little backstage slips that (we hope) are noticed only by the director, the cast and maybe Mr. Robb! Think how our impressive hero must feel when his lines and his actions demand the withdrawal of the ring and the license from his pocket and he discovers too late that he has forgotten both! What happens when a barrel is to be rolled out from behind a screen, but after a feverish search it is discovered, to the horror of all concerned, that it has been standing in full view of the audience all the time? And then to have the onlookers find to their great amusement that there is no bottom in the barrel! Even if this incident has long been forgotten by the audience, we doubt if it has left the minds of the cast of—oh dear, we forget—was it one of the Senior-Mid Plays?

We know there are at least two Seniors who remember a sudden crash in the middle of their heavy love scene. It was only a picture off the set falling onto a table, but it must have seemed like the crash of the whole performance to those involved.

It's always encouraging when the main character makes his grand entrance and all the decorations fall dramatically on his head!

Why do telephones and doorbells always ring long, painful moments too late when the lines make a big issue of them? Or brother fails to indicate departure until sister sets him off with a start toward the nearest exit with the unexpected question, "Where are you going?"

There are many accidents that are amusing to look back upon, but oh, how tragic they seem at the time! Yet what would amateur shows be without them—and in spite of all, "Gray" days make Grade A plays!

... in desk cleaning today found many old play programs which spelled Dramatics
... "Quality Street's trick chapeaux ...
nearly cooking our own Goose with our Talon Troubles ... Jack Dalton and his glamorous sister ... hearing Dieguilla's fandango as the women had their way ...

The Parting Hymn

Father, I know that all my life
Is portioned out for me;
The changes that are sure to come
I do not fear to see;
But I ask Thee for a present mind
Intent on pleasing Thee.

I ask Thee for a thoughtful love
Through constant watching wise,
To meet the glad with joyful smiles,
And to wipe the weeping eyes,
And a heart at leisure from itself,
To soothe and sympathize.

Wherever in the world I am
In whatsoe'er estate,
I have a fellowship of hearts
To keep and cultivate;
And a work of lowly love to do
For the Lord on whom I wait.

So I ask Thee for the daily strength
To none that ask denied,
And a mind to blend with outward life
While keeping at Thy side;
Content to fill a little space
If Thou be glorified.

... the kids were in "b'fore lights" trying to decide what the score was on the tea dance
... who made time and how ... how some of the drips ever got into the stag line, and other Krax ... decided to "go hag" next

The Year 1938-1939 in Review

OCTOBER

- Monday 3 School opened a week late—Hurricane! It's an ill wind. . .
- Saturday 8 Old girls met new girls at Abbot Swing Party—games, dancing, fun for all.
- Sunday 9 Senior Teas—gained three pounds in three hours! Miss Hearsey spoke on "Minorities and Majorities."
- Saturday 15 Senior Picnic at Ipswich—wading, baseball, hot dogs, big fire on the beach. Conviction that we really are Seniors at last!
- Sunday 16 Vespers led by Mr. Richardson. Need we say more?
- Friday 28 Nobility as guest—the Countess of Listowel!
- Saturday 29 Hallowe'en—witches, ghosts and goblins smarty all made merry at a party! Mr. Howe in skirts baffled the entire assembled multitude.
- Sunday 30 The Reverend Vivian T. Pomeroy. Cold shape!

NOVEMBER

- Tuesday 1 Faculty Reception—Faculty doing the worrying; Seniors the hurrying! Welcome to Miss M. D. Baker, Miss Hilda Baynes, Miss Coolidge, Miss Hill, Miss Rhodes, Miss Smith and Miss Tuttle.
- Saturday 5 Kingsland Marionettes—at which we are introduced to puppets from every land and of every age.
- Sunday 6 A.C.A. Candlelight Vespers.
- Friday 11 Miss Childs of Choate School spoke at special Armistice Day Chapel service.
- Saturday 12 Our last torchlight parade; also heart flutterings—but not our last.
- Sunday 13 Mr. Baldwin led vespers—P.A.'s favorite chaplain.
- Saturday 19 Fall Field Day postponed because of rain; Senior corridor stunts by those seniors not on week-ends.
- Sunday 20 Dr. J. Edgar Park, president of Wheaton College, speaker at vespers.
- Monday 21 Fall Field Day two days late—vision confused by green Gargoyles and orange Griffins.

- Wednesday 23 Seventy-fifth presentation of our traditional Thanksgiving Service. First School Tea of the year in the Rec Room with A.A.A. hostessing and presenting awards for fall sports.
- Thursday 24 Thanksgiving holiday ending in a blizzard!

DECEMBER

- Saturday 3 Tea Dance for upperclassmen followed by Hampton Institute Quartet concert—beautiful songs by beautiful voices.
- Saturday 10 A.D.S. plays—melodrama returning to its own!
- Friday 16 Aeolian conducted chapel and sang a beautiful Christmas Cantata.
- Saturday 17 Christmas Party for Andover children—the sort of thing that makes one feel good inside. Excited squeals from many a tot—Santa Claus—happy faces.
- Sunday 18 Christmas Service—entire school in white—impressively lovely with great lighted tree and a shining star overhead.
- Monday 19 Christmas Dinner—great undercurrent of excitement—table songs—ice cream in Christmas molds—carol sing in McKeen Rooms.
- Tuesday 20 Vacation! Enfin! Bumpy bus to Boston—many good-byes called across the station.

JANUARY

- Thursday 5 Had to come back four days early because of lost time in September. It was an ill wind!
- Saturday 7 "Oslo to the Midnight Sun"—lecture with movies. Was Deep in a Dream most of the time!
- Sunday 8 Mr. Richardson—"Consider the Lilies" . . .
- Saturday 14 Two-piano recital by the Friskins . . . Our great expectations justified . . . inspired playing by la soeur et le frère!
- Saturday 21 "The Magic of Words" by Hugh J. Coleridge MacKarness. Now we know how we should speak, but will it do any good? (I hae me doots!)
- Sunday 22 Miss Emma Cadbury—a living example of Quaker goodness—spoke at vespers on the refugee situation in Austria.
- Saturday 28 Recital by Miss Tingley and Miss Spencer, harpist—an inspiration for aspiring singers—the harp a thrill.
- Sunday 29 A.C.A. vespers on the biographies of Mrs. Compton of Illinois, Dr. Harrison of Arabia, and Jane Addams of Hull House.
- Jan. 31 - Feb. 2 Midyear examinations! Was between the dark and the daylight most of the time.

FEBRUARY

- 3-6 Intervale—Senior Paradise!
- Saturday 11 Dance Recital by Lotte Goslar. There's everything in a dance, especially if that dance is modern.
- Saturday 18 Senior-Mid plays. Talent scouts missed getting many promising stars under contract by not being here.
- Sunday 19 The Reverend Carl Kopf—"the man with the lamp"—excellent talk.
- Saturday 25 Student Recital—talent plus!

MARCH

- | | | |
|----------|----|---|
| Saturday | 4 | Henry IV Matinee—Prince Hal! All the world loves a lover. Falstaff! All the world loves Falstaff. |
| Sunday | 5 | Mr. Basil Mathews—a good talk made better by an English accent. |
| Saturday | 11 | Governor Dummer Glee Club—Fidelio Concert. Fidelio travels twenty miles, sings—dances—travels back again with tales of a good time. |
| Sunday | 12 | Neighbor Boynton Merrill of West Newton spoke at vespers. |
| Saturday | 18 | Senior Play—"The Goose Hangs High" but the applause brought the house down ! |
| Sunday | 19 | Northfield Conference presented at vespers. If enthusiasm means anything Abbot may be well represented in June. Alumna of '38—Maddie Proctor—one of the speakers. |
| Friday | 24 | Vacation—the glory of the spring! How sweet—for in the spring a young man's fancy turns, we hope, to . . .—! |

- | | | |
|-----------|----|--|
| Wednesday | 5 | Back again, one day early. It was a very ill wind! |
| Saturday | 8 | Maeve MacMurrough—fascinating monologues of interesting people and places. Never shall I fogret the seasick lady—or the one with "plate" trouble! |
| Sunday | 9 | Traditional Easter Service with a perfect address by The Reverend Vaughn Dabney of Andover-Newton Theological Seminary. |
| Saturday | 15 | Tea Dance for the "little girls"—said to be a well-flung fling! |
| Thursday | 20 | Miss Friskin and Miss Susan Ripley, Abbot '28, gave a piano and violin recital for benefit of Second Century Fund—"outstanding"—"lovely"—"exquisitely varied program." |
| Saturday | 22 | Exeter Glee Club-Fidelio concert at Abbot. Grand time. |
| Saturday | 29 | Senior Prom and Tea Dance—dancing and dancing and dancing and—dates! |

MAY

- | | | |
|----------|----|---|
| Saturday | 6 | Abbot's Birthday—great bustle and preparation for gymkhana, fencing demonstration, program of music and drama in McKeen, folk dancing around the Maypole on the Circle , Bazaar for the building fund. New dormitory excavations are in process, by the way! |
| Sunday | 7 | Miss Sue Weddell, of New York, spoke on "How Big Is Your World?" |
| Friday | 12 | Societies Banquet—Q.E.D. presiding. |
| Saturday | 20 | Senior-Mid Picnic—senior-mids come into their own at last. Recital later by speech pupils—dual personalities unsuspected. |
| Sunday | 21 | Mr. Howe's organ recital—"Papa Howe" in top performance as usual. |
| Saturday | 27 | Field Day—Senior Banquet—beginning of the end. |
| Tuesday | 30 | Final exams—horrors! Where is my optimism? |

- | | | |
|------|-----|---|
| JUNE | 2-5 | COMMENCEMENT—GRADUATION—COLLEGE BOARDS TO COME! |
|------|-----|---|

Class Will

We, the most eminent and versatile class of Abbot Academy being, as we believe, possessed of as adequate sobriety and as comparatively sane mentality as could be expected after a senior year, do hereby bequeath our begged, bought or stolen possessions and assets as follows:

First, to the Class of 1940,

1. Our able shoes to be filled.
2. The Senior Parlor and privileges.
3. Intervale ('nuff sed!).
4. The Senior couches which hold books and pillows very nicely.

Second, to some individuals,

1. Our medical supplies to Mrs. Duncan.
2. Our sweepers and dustmops to the dust chute.
3. Our letterless days to whoever wants them.
4. Ellen's dimples to "Riv."
5. Bobbie's spirit to the 1939-'40 new girls.
6. "Stu" Harris's tact to Andy Warburg.
7. The time Mooney spent on her homework to Jeanne Cowles.
8. Cherrie Koch's mice to Emily Mills.
9. Fishie's Sing-Sing banner to Ginger.
10. Our movie magazines to Miss Sweeney.
11. Our typing ability to Betty Hosford.
12. Lush's lantern to the lovelorn whose love's labors are lost.
13. Mac's pussies to Miss Rath. (Gacoo!)
14. Bobo's meekness to Anne Schoepflin.
15. Piercey's gymnastics to Miss Carpenter for her scrapbook!
16. Audie's wit to "Madame Abbot" hoping that she will smile some more.
17. All our extra closet space to the new dorm.
18. Connie's roller skates to Theodore.
19. Our wisdom teeth to the preps.
20. Kiki's '38 prom date to Duchess.
21. Bonnie's and Bellows' voices to New Fidelio.
22. Our dark glasses to Charlie.
23. Pat's elevator romance to be managed by Libby.

Third, we'll take with us,

1. Our big moments for posterity.
2. Our posture marks as a daily reminder.
3. Dottie's twin brother—though we leave Abbot "Art"less.
4. Our class sweaters to wear on rainy days.
5. Our college entrance units—we need them all!

In testimony whereof, we hereunto set our hand and seal and declare this to be our last will and testament, this fifth day of June in the year A.A. 1939.
